INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' COMPILATION REPORT

Board of Directors Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. Lake Charles, Louisiana

We have compiled the accompanying statement of financial position of Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. (a non-profit organization) as of December 31, 2013 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

Notes to the Financial Statements December 31, 2013

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Organization and Purpose

Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. is a non-profit corporation organized for the purpose of providing legal assistance in non-criminal proceedings or matters to persons unable to afford such services.

2. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting. Under the accrual basis of accounting, revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded at the time liabilities are incurred.

3. Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statement presentation follows the recommendation of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117 "Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations." Under SFAS No. 117 Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, which represent the expendable resources that are available for operations at management's discretion; temporarily restricted net assets, which represent resources restricted by donor's as to purpose or by the passage of time; and permanently restricted net assets, which represent resources whose use by the organizations is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization. The Organization did not have any permanently restricted net assets this year.

4. Restricted Cash

Client Escrow Funds

Monies deposited with Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. by its clients are deposited into separate cash accounts to be used only in connection with the related litigation. The book balance of these funds at December 31, 2013 was $30,010. Additionally, the Organization has reserved $8,079 of the board designated account to cover the client escrow fund liability.

Concentration of Revenue and Support

For December 31, 2013, the Organization received approximately 59% of its revenue and support from fees generated for legal services from the geographic region of Southwest Louisiana encompassing five parishes. Approximately 16% of the Organization's funding was provided by a United Way grant. If the Organization was no longer able to generate fees for legal services, or funding from United Way was no longer available, the operations of the Organization could be adversely impacted.

6. Public Support and Revenue

All contributions and grants are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor or the grantor.

The Organization receives funding primarily from the United Way of Southwest Louisiana.

7. Income Taxes

Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in the financial statements. In addition, Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509 (a) (2) of the Code.

8. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost, when purchased, or if donated, at the estimated fair value on the date of donation. All acquisitions in excess of $250 and all expenditures for repairs, maintenance, renewals, and betterment that materially prolong the useful lives of assets are capitalized. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets using the straight-line method and amounted to $1,235 for the year ended December 31, 2013. The following is a summary of the estimated useful lives used:

Furniture and equipment

3-7 years

9. Law Library

Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. capitalizes the costs of books, reference materials, and multiple volume sets of law books. Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. estimates that the salvage value of its law library approximates the original cost and, accordingly, depreciation expense is not recorded.

10. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For reporting purposes, cash and cash equivalents include demand deposits and certificates of deposit with an original maturity of 90 days of less.

11. Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at unpaid balances for services of which a contract has been signed and/or a statement has been issued. The Agency had provided for losses on accounts receivable using the direct write-off method. The Organization estimates the allowance for doubtful accounts based on an analysis of specific clients, taking into consideration the age of past due amounts and an assessment of the client's ability to pay. The allowance for uncollectible receivables for the year ended December 31, 2013 was $23,911.

12. Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give are recognized as revenues or gains in the period received and as assets, decreases of liabilities, or expenses depending on the form of the benefits received. Conditional promises to give are recognized only when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met and the promises become unconditional.

13. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

14. Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are charged to operations when incurred. Total advertising costs for the year ended December 31, 2013 were $0.

15. Contingency Fees

Revenue and the associated accounts receivable for cases contracted on a contingency basis are recognized in the statements when a judgment is rendered by the courts and an amount is measurable.

16. Investments

Investments are carried at cost, which approximates fair value, and consists of assets transferred to a recipient organization.

17. Comparative Totals

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, from which the summarized information was derived.

NOTE B – INVESTMENTS

NOTE E - LEASE OF FACILITIES

In addition to the value of the donated space referred to in Note D, Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. entered into a one-year lease agreement with the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury on January 8, 2004, beginning January 1, 2004 until December 31, 2004, with an optional continuance on a month-to-month basis beginning January 1, 2005 for the rental of office space in Magnolia Life Building, Lake Charles, Louisiana for $1,250 per month. A new agreement was entered into on April 22, 2010, beginning May 1, 2010 until April 30, 2011. The annual rent for the office facilities is $14,160, to be paid monthly at $1,180 per month. Building Lease expense for the year ended December 31, 2013 was $11,800.

NOTE F - RETIREMENT PLAN

Effective April 1, 1995, Southwest Louisiana Law Center, Inc. established a 403 (b) retirement plan for those employees who meet the eligibility requirements set forth in the plan. The amount of employer contributions to the plan is equal to fifty percent of the basic employee contribution made by each participant during the plan year (up to 3% match). Total contributions made to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2013 were $1,272.

NOTE G - UNCONDITIONAL PROMISE TO GIVE

During the year ended December 31, 2013, the Organization received its United Way allocation. This allocation is temporarily restricted as to time of receipt and is properly reflected in the accompanying Statement of Activities as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets. The amount to be received in less than one year is $32,500. Uncollectible allocations are expected to be insignificant.

NOTE H - CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Organization to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable and promises to give receivable. Accounts receivable represent amounts due for legal services from clients of both open and closed cases. Net accounts receivable totaled $68,317 at December 31, 2013. Amounts receivable from promises to give at December 31, 2013 consists of $32,500 from the United Way of Southwest Louisiana.

NOTE I - FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES

Expenses were allocated in the accompanying financial statements to program and support services functional expense groups. The methods of allocation were based on the Organization's estimates of the relative proportion of various staff members' time and effort between program and support services as well as the Organization's estimates of the amount of each expense utilized for program or support service functions.

NOTE J - TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

During the year ended December 31, 2013, the Organization received its United Way allocation of $65,000 for the period July 2013 through June 2014. The receivable of $32,500 is the amount for January 2014 through June 2014. This allocation is temporarily restricted as to time of receipt and is properly reflected in the accompanying Statement of Activities as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets. Uncollectible allocations are expected to be insignificant.

NOTE K - FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Organization in estimating its fair value disclosures for financial statements:

Cash, cash equivalents, short-term unconditional promises to give, and notes payable: The carrying amounts reported in the statement of financial position approximate fair values because of the short maturities of those instruments.

Short-term investments: The fair value of investments is based on quoted prices for those similar investments.

NOTE L - SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Subsequent events were evaluated through June 27, 2014 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
